JamesSuckling.com, Ryan Montgomery - AUG 2025

GOLD, 95 POINTS

"There's lovely balance of freshness and earthy notes, with aromas of red cherries, cranberries, spices, citrus peel, slate, wet earth, porcini mushrooms and orange blossoms. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannins and bright acidity, showing generosity and power with a mineral edge. The finish is refined, soft and understated, with underlying strength and ageability. Drink or hold. Screw cap."

Halliday Wine Companion, Mike Bennie - MAY 2025

"A vineyard planted in the '80s and now a single-site wine for Ashton Hills, off their commanding estate. A chirpy, almost crisp pinot noir of red and black cherry, green olive, brine, wild raspberry undercurrents, touches of cardamom and a strong finish with aniseed and salted licorice. Fantastic in its layers of flavours and aromas, concentrated but tight, tense with fine, al dente tannins, great length and overall a compelling wine."
